

Pilgrim's Blessing Mix

The Bugles are a symbol of the cornucopia, a horn of plenty.

The Pretzels represent arms folded in a prayer of thanks.

The Candy Corn reminds us that during the first winter, the pilgrims were allowed only 5 kernels of food per day because food was scarce.

The Fruit is a reminder that Thanksgiving is the celebration of Harvest.

The Nuts represent seeds, the potential of bounteous harvest for the next season if they are planted and well tended.

Pilgrim's Blessing Mix

The Bugles are a symbol of the cornucopia, a horn of plenty.

The Pretzels represent arms folded in a prayer of thanks.

The Candy Corn reminds us that during the first winter, the pilgrims were allowed only 5 kernels of food per day because food was scarce.

The Fruit is a reminder that Thanksgiving is the celebration of Harvest.

The Nuts represent seeds, the potential of bounteous harvest for the next season if they are planted and well tended.

Pilgrim's Blessing Mix

The Bugles are a symbol of the cornucopia, a horn of plenty.

The Pretzels represent arms folded in a prayer of thanks.

The Candy Corn reminds us that during the first winter, the pilgrims were allowed only 5 kernels of food per day because food was scarce.

The Fruit is a reminder that Thanksgiving is the celebration of Harvest.

The Nuts represent seeds, the potential of bounteous harvest for the next season if they are planted and well tended.

Pilgrim's Blessing Mix

The Bugles are a symbol of the cornucopia, a horn of plenty.

The Pretzels represent arms folded in a prayer of thanks.

The Candy Corn reminds us that during the first winter, the pilgrims were allowed only 5 kernels of food per day because food was scarce.

The Fruit is a reminder that Thanksgiving is the celebration of Harvest.

The Nuts represent seeds, the potential of bounteous harvest for the next season if they are planted and well tended.